Alpena Alcona Area Credit Union Wins Friend of 4-H Award in Alcona County

Alcona County, MI—Team members from Alpena Alcona Area Credit Union's (AAACU) Lincoln Branch recently attended the Alcona County 4-H Fair Market Sale. This year the credit union purchased a Turkey and a pen of rabbits. The animals were then donated back to be resold with proceeds from the resale benefiting the market sale program. The credit union was also nominated for and won the "Friends of 4-H Award." The Friends of 4-H Award is designed to honor those who have made outstanding contributions to the 4-H program which focuses on youth development through hands-on learning experiences. This award acknowledges the efforts of individuals, businesses or organizations that have support 4-H initiatives, helping to empower young people in their communities. AAACU is proud and honored to be recognized with this AAACU's donation to support Alcona County 4-H Fair Market Sale is made possible by our Community Investment Fund. These funds are comprised of dollars donated back into our communities thanks to credit union members who choose to receive their monthly statements electronically. The credit union pledged to donate $9.00 annually for each of these e-statements accounts and in 2025, AAACU will donate up to $298,600.00 back into the communities they serve.

AAACU is a state-chartered credit union with membership eligibility open to any resident in the state of Michigan. As of June 30, 2025, AAACU provides service to 48,251 members with total assets equal to $902,890,930.
